Changing the Mindset from Me to We: Harnessing the Active Participation and Partnership of the Youth (HAPPY) towards a Drug Free Philippines

To intensify our advocacy campaign on disaster preparedness and anti-illegal drugs in our region, the DILG Region I through the Local Government Monitoring and Evaluation Division (LGMED), conducted a three-day event on September 28-30, 2022 which was participated by Sangguniang Kabataan Leaders/ Youth Representatives and LYDO from the four (4) provinces of Region I – Ilocos Norte, Ilocos Sur, La Union and Pangasinan.

Highlights of the event were the team-building activities, first aid and rescue operations drills and talent night. Participants were divided into four groups and were tasked to develop a TikTok/video clip on Anti-Illegal Drugs thru HAPPY. These videos were later on uploaded to the DLIG R1 website and Facebook page and were used as IEC materials.

Batch 54 Sanliyab: 13 Apprentices Blazed

Thirteen (13) full-fledged Local Government Operations Officers II were emblazoned to DILG Region 1's list of fieldmen after successfully hurdling the Local Government Academy's 54th Apprenticeship Program for LGOO IIs and IIIs. Said program is a competency-based intervention designed to prepare LGOOs to assume greater responsibilities as front-liners of the Department.

The apprentices had undergone the Component 1: Foundation Course designed to enhance their core, functional, and leadership competencies. Two (2) modules were conducted online through the LGA's learning management system (LMS) and zoom video conference, while four (4) modules were conducted face-to-face at Angel's Hills, Tagaytay City, together with other apprentices from other regions. Aside from passing each module, a comprehensive examination was administered for them to be able to proceed to the next component.

Meanwhile, the second component, the Supervised Field Work (SFW), is designed to provide an avenue for apprentices to practice their learning from the first component, under the coaching and supervision of exemplary DILG field officers. They were deployed in the Municipality of Pasuquin, Bacnotan, Santiago, and Malasiqui.

Component III: Assessment Center is a comprehensive assessment to validate the competencies acquired in the preceding components, divided into two (2) parts, the Paper and Pencil Examination and the Simulated Exercises and Interview. For the last component, Revalida, the apprentices were provided additional technical modules to address the identified learning gaps during the assessment center in order to prepare them for their post-program assignments. Finally, the Graduation marked the culmination of the Apprenticeship Program which awarded Certificates of Completion and Recognition to the new full-fledged LGOO IIs of the Department.

The new full-fledged blazing LGOO IIs from the Sanliyab Batch are Archie F. Amon, Jaybee Apigo, Hedrich V. Calderon, Micah Janina A. Corpuz, Princess Joy B. Duldulao, Liana M. Lalata, Vina Rose B. Libed, Vilgladys M. Maglaya, Jayson L. Ordinario, Dennis Caesar R. Peralta, Neil Jasper Rebuldela, Jeslen B. Tesoro, and Julie Fe R. Vicente. LGOO II Jeslen B. Tesoro

This Year's "Dagyaw sa Ilocos" Event Tackles Revitalizing MSMEs

In the quest of portraying the concept of “togetherness” in good governance, meaningful discussions between the government and the Filipino people continue under the 2022 Dagyaw Open Government Townhall Meeting.

This year's episode, co-convened by PIA and DBM Region 1, the DILG – R1 hosted the returned face-to-face Dagyaw on November 9, 2022 at EM Royale Hotel and Resort, San Juan, La Union, livestreamed via Zoom and Facebook LIVE with a topic “Talakayang Bounce Back sa Negosyo at MSME”.

Over 150 Micro, Small, Medium Enterprises (MSMEs) and 1,716 combined online viewers pooled as audience and take an active part in the open public dialogue. Talks highlighted on MSME statistics of the region, updates on preparations and systems put in place by the national government to facilitate sound recovery for MSMEs, flagged key issues and concerns posed by the COVID-19 and other current issues the sector is facing, and action items to address them ways forward. Information Officer III Ms. Joanne Namnama P. Dilim of the Philippine Information Agency R1 served as the moderator of the event.

As partners in development, the session was joined by partner Civil Society Organizations (CSO) represented by Ms. Zenaida Reño and Mr. Joel Sudarya of Nueva Segovia Consortium of Cooperatives and Mr. Racky Doctor of Pangasinan Entrepreneurs Development Association, Inc. Both CSOs provided additional context, support, and guidance on the MSME issues from the lens of their advocacy.

Generally, the activity hopes to encourage MSMEs to thrive in an increasingly global and competitive e-commerce industry and maximize the knowledge of the public to become more competent and resilient as they embrace opportunities and challenges in the new and better normal.

Towards the end of the program, Dir. Ria Bansigan, Regional Director of DBM Region 1 concluded and synthesized what transpired in the session with a heartfelt speech underscoring that bounce back efforts after the pandemic meltdown is not a sole responsibility of the government but should be a consorted effort from everyone.

First launched in 2019, the “Dagyaw: Open Government and Participatory Governance Regional Town Hall Meetings” provides a venue for dialogues between the government and different sectors on national and local issues and plan. Dagyaw remains one of the programs of the Participatory Governance Cluster (PGC) contributing in achieving its goal of enhancing citizen participation in governmental processes.
